2. The preferential customs duties indicated in the table above shall apply from the date of entry into force of this Agreement onwards. The duties shall not be retroactively reduced.

3. In 2019, the Parties shall examine the improvement of tariff liberalisation of bananas.
4. A stabilisation clause shall be based on the following elements:
  - (a) A trigger import volume is set for imports from the Republics of the CA Party for each of the years during the transition period as indicated in the above table. The trigger volume shall apply to individual Republics of the CA Party as stipulated in the table above<sup>58</sup>;
  - (b) Once this trigger volume is met during a calendar year, the EU Party may temporarily suspend the preferential customs duty set out in the table above for a period of time not exceeding three months, and not going beyond the end of the calendar year;
  - (c) In case it suspends said preferential customs duty, the EU Party shall apply the least of the base rate (as indicated in its Schedule) or the MFN duty that will be applied at the time this action will be taken;
  - (d) In case it applies the actions mentioned above under paragraphs (b) and (c), the EU Party shall immediately enter into consultations with the Republics of the CA Party to analyse and evaluate the situation on the basis of factual available data;
  - (e) The measures mentioned above under paragraphs (b) or (c) shall be applicable only during the transition period.

<sup>58</sup> For the purpose of recording imports to be considered for the trigger volumes set out in paragraph 1, the EU Party shall require the presentation of an export certificate issued by the competent authority of the exporting Republic of the CA Party.
